The Fine & Rare List

We have selected these wines because we believe they are just that little bit special or unusual. Go on... Spoil yourself!

Andreas Syrah 2019 – South Africa

£40.00

An excellent alternative to the great Rhone Syrahs. Rich blackberry, cherry and plum notes. Voluptuous full bodied with hints of black pepper. A lingering finish rounds of this very small production wine. Lovely straight out of the bottle, but benefits from being decanted.

Château Cissac Haut-Médoc 2018 – Bordeaux

£45.00

Cabernet Sauvignon – Merlot – Petit Verdot

We have managed to acquire limited stocks of this excellent vintage Cissac at a price which makes it more approachable than normal. This is a structured wine, beautifully perfumed with richly tannic black fruits. Made to age with robust tannins and layers of sumptuous fruit over firm oak. Delicious now and in the near future.

Mitolo GAM Shiraz 2020 – Australia

£61.00

A single vineyard Shiraz from McLaren Vale that exhibits concentrated, complex and elegant flavours with fine tannins, good balance and a glorious finish. Parker points are fantastic – the wine is just amazing!

J'Noon Akluj Red Blend 2020 – India

£66.00

The Petit Verdot, Merlot and Cabernet Franc grapes give the wine its deep purple colour and flavours of blackcurrant and blackberry, while the Cabernet Sauvignon contributes backbone as well as a freshness to the blend. This wine has structured tannins, a full body and notes of spearmint and graphite, supported by a backdrop of cedar and fresh tobacco. The finish is long and silky.

Alpha Zeta 'A' Amarone della Valpolicella 2018 – Italy £70.00

This Amarone is deep and intense on the nose with aromas of dried cherries, plums, spiced autumn fruit compote and chocolate. On the palate, it is powerful with a lovely balance of ripe, silky tannins and a spiced, concentrated savoury cherry fruit character. A touch of woodsmoke completes the long finish.

Château Beau-Site Saint-Estèphe 2016 – Bordeaux £75.00

Cabernet Sauvignon – Merlot

Classic St. Estèphe, displaying good levels of ripe black and red fruits, as well as firm and meaty tannins. A traditionalist's Claret, drinking perfectly now, but good for another 10 plus years.

Château Deyrem Valentin Margaux 2018 – Bordeaux £80.00

Merlot – Cabernet Sauvignon – Petit Verdot

Luscious dark fruits on the nose, black cherries and plums and well integrated oak. The palate is opulent with sweet spice, chocolate and coffee flavours coming through. It is a typically joyful Margaux with power and flashy opulence.

G.D. Vaijra Barolo Albe 2018 – Italy £88.00

Shiny ruby red in colour. Aromas of red fruits and plums combine with floral notes, pine needles and brushwood. 'Le Albe' is a harmony of sophisticated and delicate flavours supported by ripe tannins and an elegant acidity.

Maison Alexandre Gauvin Gevrey-Chambertin 2019 – Burgundy £95.00

Full bodied, structured and fantastically age-worthy, the wines of Gevrey-Chambertin are some of the most prestigious and sought-after reds in the world. This elegant bottling is made by a renowned producer with an emphasis on low-intervention winemaking, so the exceptional quality of the grapes shines through. It's a must-try wine for anyone curious about just how good Pinot Noir can get. It's intensely fruity with flavours of black cherry, blackberry and notes of liquorice and leather.
